

Typical Site Plan

Owner is responsible for determining the exact location of property lines.

Site Plan must include measurements/dimensions of all structures relevant to the application for any County issued permit.

