Eligibility Requirements

Who is eligible?

A person convicted of an offense who does not demonstrate a present or past pattern of violent behavior and who would otherwise be sentenced to partial confinement under 42 Pa.C.S. § 9724 (relating to partial confinement) or total confinement under 42 Pa.C.S. § 9725 (relating to total confinement) in a county or State correctional facility. The Intermediate Punishment Program focuses on D.U.I. offenses, and non-violent, Level 3 & 4 offenders.

Who is not eligible?

Any individual with a past pattern of violent behavior or probation and parole violations are excluded. An individual is also deemed ineligible, if the current offense involves serious injury to another person and/or if a minor was present in the vehicle at the time of the current offense.

If an offender commits the current offense while on supervised Parole, Probation or Intermediate Punishment, the offender shall be ineligible for the Program. Exceptions will be made for Intermediate Punishment in cases where the offender has a significant history of substance abuse, is in need of treatment as recommended by West Branch Drug & Alcohol Abuse Commission and otherwise qualifies for the Intermediate Punishment Program.

Additionally, any individual with current or past convictions for the following offenses:
